The Court made the following :

JUDGMENT: (per the Hon'ble Sri Bilal Nazki, ACJ)

Appellant-writ petitioner filed a writ petition seeking a direction to produce the record in File No 865/C/MGC/95, dated 28.3.1995. According to him, he had been promised a job by the then Chief Minister. Learned single Judge found that already a writ petition had been filed, being Writ Petition No.19984 of 1999, which was disposed of with a direction to the respondents to dispose of the representation. A contempt case was filed thereafter being C.C. No.324 of 2003. In the contempt case, the respondent took the defence that no such file was existing and the contempt case was closed.

In that view of the matter, the learned single judge was right in dismissing the writ petition. We do not find any ground to interfere with the order passed by the learned single judge.

The writ appeal is accordingly dismissed. No costs.
